In his time there were few better-known men in this part of Taranaki than Mr Robert Snell, whose death at the age of 76 years is recorded to-day. He was a Devonshire man, and came to Taranaki, we believe, in the early sixties. He took a very keen interest in political matters, holding pronounced Radical views on most subjects. Of late years, owing to indifferent health and increasing age, he has lived a retired life at Waihi, and was less in the public eye than formerly.
