WAIWAKAIHO BRIDGE.

THE completion of this extensive work was observed by a public Luncheon at the river presided over by His Honor the Superintendent. The event afforded a pleasing and entertaining afternoon to a large concourse of persons.

In the evening a Subscription Ball was given at the Masonic Hotel, and numerous attended. The band of the garrison performed by permission of Lieut.-Colonel Murray. The Ball terminated a short time before the calamitous fire broke out which we have reported above.
