

| Stratford Evening Post | 17 December 1924

The contractor for the erection of the new premises for Mr E. Carryer, of the Egmont Clothing Co. (Mr C. Moore) has made a start with the work of excavation. The building at present occupied by Messrs Fookes, Young and Moss, which is on the site of the new structure, has been sold for removal, and will be demolished prior to January 15, and the firm will remove to the Public Trust Building.

| Stratford Evening Post | 15 July 1925 |

The new premises now in course of erection in Broadway for Mr. E. Carryer are almost completed and Mr Carryer will occupy them in the course of a few days.