

A very pleasant function took place at the Medina Tea Rooms on Saturday night when the principals of Messrs Manoy's, Ltd., entertained their staff at supper. Mr C. Moore, the builder of Manoy's new store, and Mrs Moore were also present. The evening passed most pleasantly, and was greatly enjoyed, and all voiced their appreciation of the hospitality extended. The health of Mr, Mrs and Miss Manoy was drunk, as was also that of Mr Moore. Songs were rendered by Mrs Moore and Mrs Pickles, after which Mr Hoskin delivered a short address to the old and new members of the staff, pointing out that many of their staff had been in their employ for a number of years, which showed that the relations between employers and employees were of the happiest.
