

TDN 25 July 2013

Out with the old, in with the New World

She's gone: Demolition workers ripped down New Plymouth's old Plunket rooms in Courtenay St yesterday. The building, built in 1949, is being demolished to create more car parks at the city's under-renovation New World supermarket. Plunket has new rooms in Devon St West.

Photo: CAMERON BURNELL/FAIRFAX NZ