Hall headed for new home

ST MICHAEL'S HALL stopped the traffic at Fitzroy today as contractors manoeuvred it under Christmas lighting. The hall began its three-hour trip to Midhirst about 7 a.m. today on the truck of Wanganui removal contractor, Mr Ted Britton. The eight-year-old hall is no longer needed at Brooklands, New Plymouth, now that a project to combine the churches there has reached the building stage. It will be used instead as a community hall at Midhirst.
