

nd picked
to bleed

An ex-
d a punc-
After re-
was able
as riding
Courtenay
proaching

Whiteley
held at

Ornaments expects to go into camp at Uxbridge during the first week in April.

A well-known personality has been lost to Taranaki by the death at New Plymouth of Mr. Daniel J. Barry, at the age of 82 years. Mr. Barry, who resided in Barrett Street, was the father of Mesdames J. C. Fouhy (New Plymouth), and J. A. Scott (Wellington) and Messrs. J. J. Barry (Inglewood) and R. A. Barry (Waitara).

In the chapel of St. John's College

CRU

TWO

COPP

By