

come many of the Maori problems that had been referred to so often recently.

CITIZENS' TRIBUTE

MR. C. CARTER'S FUNERAL

The large attendance this afternoon at the funeral of the late Mr. C. Carter, was a tribute by the citizens of New Plymouth to one who had served the community over a long period of years, and who by his industry, integrity and fine example of citizenship, had won the esteem of all who knew him.

The first part of the service took place in Whiteley Memorial Church. The Rev. J. H. Allen officiated and had associated with him the Revs. I. M. Raynor and C. M. Roberts. *

In a brief address Mr. Allen said the tribute was to a well-known personality and one who was very familiar in the community. The late Mr. Carter was a great example to the men of his own generation in all those things that made for good citizenship. To those who came to know him more recently his wide interests and spreading influence were an amazement. In local politics, in sport and recreation, in the church and in the business and community life he had served his day and generation well and up to the last and to the limit, and he "ceased at once to work and live."

Appropriate hymns were sung, Mr. C. E. Morshead presiding at the organ.

The circuit minister officiated at the graveside at Te Henui cemetery, where the Masonic service also was read by P.M. Bro. W. Jones.

The bearers were: Messrs. W. F. Short, N. Allen, R. Greiner, A. K. Smart, M. H. Barnitt and A. F. Sandford.

There were over 100 floral emblems, including tributes from many personal friends and from the many organisations with which Mr. Carter had been connected.