Gifts To Mokau Church

Gifts account for a large proportion of the furnishings of the new Church of St. Peter-by-the-sea at Mokau, which was dedicated by the Bishop of Waikato, the Rt. Rev. J. T. Holland, on Saturday. Gifts mentioned by Bishop Holland were: The timber (an anonymous donation by a local churchman); the altar (Holy Trinity parish, Stratford); the altar cross (Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chisholm, Wanganui); the candlesticks (Archdeacon and Mrs. Pywell, Dunedin); the altar hangings and aisle runner (Mokau River parishioners); the pews (St. Mary's parish, New Plymouth); the lectern (Okato parish); the font (St. Peter's Cathedral, Hamilton).
